

Social Life at the Mecklenburg

CHAS. CITY, VA., April 6.—The Easter German dance on Monday evening was unusually attractive by reason of the large number of dancers, the dainty costumes worn, and the attractive Easter decorations of white and violet which made a beautiful setting for the charming picture. The German was led by Mrs. John C. Sizer, of Richmond, with Miss Marie Guthrie of Lynchburg, and many graceful figures were skillfully introduced and well carried out. Miss Guthrie was in white mull, with blue ribbons, a coronet of for-get-me-nots, and carried American Beauties. The others dancing were Miss O'Callahan of Philadelphia, white lace, Miss Baker, Detroit, Mich., pink point despit, Miss Louise Penick, South Boston, Va., lavender crepe, Miss Wilson, Chas. City, pink mull, Miss Madge Vance, Danville, Va., white chiffon and lace, Miss Barkdale, grey crepe de chine, Miss Hoffman, Norfolk, black lace, diamonds, Miss Paxton, Washington, D. C., white mull, Miss Roberts, Chas. City, Va., pink mull, Mr. Geo. Gilmore, Chas. City, Va., Mr. H. C. Cooley, Chas. City, Va., Dr. Frederick Cooke, Louisville, N. C., Mr. Guy Beckenrode, Baltimore, Md., Mr. R. B. Agnew, Mr. Leon Park, Chas. City, Va., Mr. H. V. Daniel, Norfolk, Va., Mr. R. P. Beasley, Louisville, Mr. J. G. Prince, N. Y. City, Mr. John E. Hughes, Danville, Mr. R. B. Combs, Philadelphia, Mr. Albert Brooks, Mr. Hunter Gregory, Mr. Oscar Yokely, Chas. City. The chaperones, who by their handsome costumes and charming personality refuted the charge of a "dull and kindly back-ground" once laid to a chaperone's door, were Mrs. W. T. Hughes, The Mecklenburg, in white lace, Mrs. Anna S. Valentine, Richmond, jetted robe, Mrs. W. D. Paxton, Washington, D. C., black lace, Mrs. V. Reed, Richmond, blue taffeta and lace, Mrs. J. C. Walton, The Mecklenburg, old rose panne velvet, Mrs. W. C. Saunders, Richmond, white lace.

The Mecklenburg proved a happy meeting ground for many very pleasant people during the Easter holidays which were delightfully spent here in spite of March's making good its threat to get even with its lamb-like beginning. Miss Cary Valentine of Richmond spent Sunday here with her mother, Mrs. Mann Valentine, one of the most charming women here.

Dr. W. L. Foushee of the Chair of Latin, Richmond College, spent his holidays here with his brother, Mr. H. A. Foushee, and family, Durham, N. C.

Dr. F. C. Woodward, Prof. of Literature in the Woman's College, Richmond, joined his wife here on Saturday, both of whom have won many admiring friends during their stay here.

Mr. Mettewar Anderson of Richmond, spent Sunday with his father, Capt. T. M. Anderson of Wilson, N. C., who is having a most beneficial stay here.

Miss Eleanor Hall of Ridgefield, N. J., is the guest of her sister, Mrs. J. C. Walton.

Mrs. Wm. T. Reed, Miss Alice Reed, Master William Reed and maid, a delightful family group here from Richmond.

Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Schofield, Danville, spent the holidays here chaperoning Miss Schofield and Miss Vase who added much to the charm of the young set.

Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Wise of Richmond, are among the recent arrivals here and make a very attractive addition to the social life of the place. Others registered during Easter week were: Mr. J. D. Temple, Chicago, Mr. C. A. Penick, Miss Penick, South Boston, Mr. W. C. Cunningham, Spartanburg, S. C., Mr. H. B. Scott, Redlands, N. C., Mrs. Geo. L. Kirby, Goldsboro, N. C., Miss Mary Duguid, Mrs. W. D. Duguid, Lynchburg, Va., Mrs. Fred. A. Baker, Miss Baker, Detroit, Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Seeds, Chester, Pa.

MIDLOTHIAN

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

MIDLOTHIAN, VA., April 6.—Mrs. C. C. Cottrell and son, Sam, were the guests of Mrs. Field on Friday.

Miss Neville Watkins spent Easter with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Watkins.

Miss Ada La Prade spent Easter in Richmond.

Mrs. B. W. Bailey and Master Charlie Bailey spent Wednesday with the former's sister, Mrs. Martin, of Manchester.

Miss Mary Jewett spent Easter with her parents here. She had as her house guest Miss Mary Willison, of Baltimore.

Masters Bruce and Russell Ferguson were the Easter guests of their aunt, Mrs. Owens.

Miss Emma Winfree had as her guest Easter Miss Addie Lee Mark-

Nothing Too Good For the American People

BOXES A MONTH, proving that the American people recognize, that what is BEST FOR THEM is none too good.

Why this enormous patronage? The answer is simple: Cascarets are pure, clean, sweet, mild, fragrant, harmless but effective little tablets for the treatment and cure of Constipation and all Bowel Troubles. They are put up in neat little enamel boxes, easy to buy, easy to carry (in vest-pocket or purse), easy to take and easy of action, always reliable, always the same, they "work while you sleep" and wake you up feeling fine in the morning.

They not only regulate the movement and stimulate the muscular walls of the bowels, but they keep the ENTIRE CANAL CLEAN and antiseptic, forcing out and destroying all disease germs that breed in the accumulated filth unless promptly and regularly discharged. Therefore, they are a great preventive of disease, and may be taken continuously as a precautionary measure.

The new Pure Drugs Act, adopted by Congress on June 30, 1906, and in effect January 1, 1907, is a GOOD LAW and means better and PURER drugs for the American People. We endorse it and will live up to it in SPIRIT and LETTER—an easy task, as we have always been actuated by the same principles and no changes are required in our formula or packaging.

We adopted OUR OWN PURE DRUG LAW in 1896 when the first box of Cascarets came on the market and have lived and worked and produced under it ever since.

To-day, after a record of nearly 100,000,000 boxes sold, Cascarets STAND the greater in PURITY, QUALITY and MEDICAL MERIT than any other preparation for Bowel trouble in all the world.

This should be a great argument for any one, to try Cascarets AT ONCE, and be healthier and happier for it. Some people have CHRONIC CONSTIPATION with all the horrors derived from it; others have HABITUAL CONSTIPATION from carelessness and neglect, but nearly EVERYBODY has OCCASIONAL CONSTIPATION, which, if not promptly taken care of is liable to result in its degeneration into the worse forms and cause great suffering and perhaps death.

Cascarets, if taken patiently and regularly, will remedy all of these awful troubles, but if taken promptly at the very first sign of an irregularity of the bowels, will act as the FINEST PREVENTIVE ever discovered and will keep all the machinery running in good order.

We advise you to get a little 10c box of Cascarets TO-DAY and carry it in your purse or vest pocket. Take one when you feel anything unusual about your bowels. Your own druggist will sell you the little box, under GUARANTY of satisfaction or money refunded. All druggists, 10c, 25c, 50c.

WYTHEVILLE

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

WYTHEVILLE, April 6.—The Rock Road Hunt Club, which was organized a week or two ago, had its first meet on last Monday a few miles below town. A fox which had been captured was turned loose about twenty minutes after the dogs, and for a short while the chase was very nice and music from the improvised pack was a delight to the ears of old fox-hunters. The fox was caught after about a two-miles' run. It is proposed by the officers of the club to procure a first-class pack, and make the club one of the institutions of pleasure for the county.

The Easter offerings for St. John's Episcopal Church amounted, from all sources, to a little over $600, and by resolution of the vestry, such portion as was not designated for special objects will go to the church improvement fund.

On Easter Monday the following vestry was elected by the congregational meeting: Col. R. E. Withers, Dr. W. H. Ribble, Sr., Dr. G. Gibbons, Charles Heuser, J. Hal Gibbons, R. L. Poague, Edmund Pendleton, Robert Simpson, Benjamin Topham, Dr. W. H. Ribble, Jr., W. H. Spiller and J. J. A. Powell.

CHATHAM SOCIAL

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

CHATHAM, VA., April 6.—Mr. and Mrs. James Madison Marshall, of Kadesburg, Pittsylvania county, have issued invitations to the marriage of their daughter, Miss Myrtle Hunter Marshall, to Mr. Ernest Hamilton Jennings, of Roanoke. The nuptials will be celebrated in Kentuck Baptist Church on Wednesday, the 10th, at 2 P. M.

Miss Saluda Thornton, of Republican Grove, Halifax county, has issued invitations to the marriage of her daughter, Miss Sue Evelyn Thornton, to Mr. Thomas Jackson Hatcher, of Richmond. The marriage is to be celebrated in the Baptist Church, of Republican Grove, Wednesday afternoon, April 17th, at 6 o'clock.

Both the brides-to-be are well and favorably known here, where they have often visited and been the recipients of much attention. Miss Mamie Petty, of Chatham, will be one of the attendants at the Hatcher-Thornton wedding.

Thirty-six notices are posted on the courthouse front of application that will be made at the regular April term of Pittsylvania County Circuit Court for license to drink, rectify and retail whiskey in Pittsylvania county for the coming year. Of this number, ten are for retail license, three for rectify, and three for license to distill. Licensees should any application develop several days will be required to dispose of these cases, but at this time no move has been made by the anti-liquor faction.

T. M. Angle, of Dry Fork, and one of the largest distillers and rectifiers in the county, has moved his family to Milton, N. C., from where they came to Dry Fork, but his plans for the future are not known.

Messrs. Wm. Childress, B. C. and Sandy White returned from Richmond Thursday morning with a carload of horses purchased on the Richmond market.

Compensations.

Mary—Did she make a good match?

Ann—Splendid. Lots of money, good social position, and all that. In fact, the only drawback is the husband.—Illustrated Billa.

THE FIRST GRAY HAIR

By THOMAS HAYNES BAXLEY.

Other selections from this author, his portrait, autograph and biographical sketch, have already been printed in this series.

The matron at her mirror, with her hand upon her brow, Sits gazing on her lovely face—ay, lovely even now: Why doth she lean upon her hand with such a look of care? Why steals that tear across her cheek?—She sees her first gray hair.

Time from her form hath ta'en away but little of its grace; His touch of thought hath dignified the beauty of her face; Yet she might mingle in the dance where maidens gaily trip, So bright is still her hazel eye, so beautiful her lip.

The faded form is often mark'd by sorrow more than years: The wrinkle on the cheek may be the course of secret tears; The mournful lip may murmur of a love it ne'er confessed, And the dimness of the eye betray a heart that cannot rest.

But she hath been a happy wife;—the lover of her youth: May proudly claim the smile that pays the trial of his truth: A sense of slight—of loneliness—hath never banish'd sleep; Her life hath been a cloudless one;—then, wherefore doth she weep?

She look'd upon her raven locks;—what thoughts did they recall? Oh! not of nights when they were deck'd for banquet or for ball;— They brought back thoughts of early youth, e'er she had learnt to check,

With artificial wreaths, the curls that sported o'er her neck.

She seem'd to feel her mother's hand pass lightly through her hair, And draw it from her brow, to leave a kiss of kindness there: She seem'd to view her father's smile, and feel the playful touch That sometimes foign'd to steal away the curls she prized so much.

And now she sees her first gray hair! Oh! deem it not a crime For her to weep—when she beholds the first footmark of Time! She knows that, one by one, those mute mementos will increase, And steal youth, beauty, strength away, till life itself shall cease.

'Tis not the tear of vanity for beauty on the wane— Yet though the blossom may not sigh to bud, and bloom again, It cannot but remember with a feeling of regret, The Spring forever gone—the Summer sun so nearly set.

Ah! Lady, heed the monitor! Thy mirror tells the truth, Assume the matron's folded veil, resign the wreath of youth; Go!—bind it on thy daughter's brow, in her thou'lt still look fair; 'Twere well would all learn wisdom who behold the first gray hair!
